RE: REVISED 2011 INCOME GUIDELINES FOR REAL PROPERTY TAX DEDUCTION FOR SENIOR CITIZENS, DISABLED PERSONS AND SURVIVING SPOUSES
N.J.S.A. 54:4-8.40 et seq.; Chapter 129, P.L. 1976, as amended; N.J.A.C. 18:14-1.1 et seq.

To assist all concerned with the administration of Chapter 129, Laws of 1976, as amended, and to aid in determining income which may be deducted or excluded from gross income of citizens and residents of this State, 65 years of age or more, or less than 65 years but permanently and totally disabled, or their surviving spouses, age 55 or more, in certain cases, who are applying for the Real Property Tax Deduction under N.J.S.A. 54:4-8.40 et seq. the following guidelines are provided.

This information supersedes that contained in the Guidelines of August 2010 and pertains to Property Tax Deduction Claims (Form PTD) for tax year 2011 and Annual Post-Tax Year Statements (Form PD5) filed by March 1, 2012 to confirm 2011 income. Initial application Form PTD must be filed with the assessor between October 1 and December 31 of pretax year 2010 or with the tax collector at any time during tax year January 1, 2011 - December 31, 2011. Social Security income data is based on an individual retiring at full retirement age in 2011 who has contributed to Social Security at maximum wage levels through 2010 and can be used to determine whether a PTD applicant meets the $10,000 income limit for 2011. PTD applicants should provide the assessor or collector with the amount of annual benefit and the name and address of the agency granting the benefit.

INCOME DEFINED

N.J.S.A. 54:4-8.40(a) defines "income" as all income from whatever source derived including, but not limited to, realized capital gains except for a capital gain resulting from the sale or exchange of real property owned and used by the taxpayer as his principal residence...and, in their entirety, pension, annuity and retirement benefits.

N.J.A.C. 18:14-1.1 enumerates "income" as salaries, wages, bonuses, commissions, tips and other compensations before payroll deductions, all dividends, interest, realized capital gains, royalties, income from rents, business income and, in their entirety, pension, annuity and retirement benefits. Realized capital gains, except for capital gain resulting from the sale or exchange of real property owned and used by the taxpayer as his principal residence...and dividends, interest, pensions, annuities and retirement benefits must be included in full without deductions even though they may be wholly or partially exempt for Federal Income Tax purposes.

N.J.A.C. 18:14-1.1 further defines "business income" as gross income derived from a business, trade, profession or the rental of property after deductions of the ordinary and necessary expenses of the business, trade, profession or rental of property allowed under the Federal Internal Revenue Code and regulations.

Ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in a trade or business are included as deductions for adjusted gross income. Such deductions are subtracted from gross income to arrive at adjusted gross income to the extent allowed under the IRS Code and Regulations. However, certain categories of expenses may only be used against similar categories of income and not applied broadly against all income. To ascertain the treatment of such expenses, it is necessary to review how the income was categorized, reported and treated for Federal Income Tax purposes. Deductions for AGI are reported on page 1 of the Federal 1040 and originate on supporting schedules; Federal Schedule C for business expenses and Federal Schedule E for rent, royalty, partnership and fiduciary deductions.

"Married persons income" income received by the applicant and spouse is combined in establishing eligibility for the property tax deduction unless they are living separately. N.J.S.A. 54:4-8.41 provides, in part, income of a married person includes an amount equal to the income of the spouse during the applicable income year, except for that portion of the year as the two were living apart in a state of separation, whether under judicial decree or otherwise.

N.J.A.C. 18:14-1.1 also provides income of applicant's family members, other than a spouse, is not to be combined with income of the applicant.

EXCLUDABLE INCOME

A PTD applicant is entitled to exclude benefits under only ONE of the following three categories:

1. The Federal Social Security Act and all its amendments and supplements; *** SEE NOTE
2. Any other Federal government program or Federal law which provides benefits in whole or in part in lieu of Social Security benefits or for persons excluded from coverage under Social Security, including but not limited to the Federal Railroad Retirement Act (Tier I and II) and Federal pension, disability and retirement programs; *** SEE NOTE
3. Pension, disability or retirement programs of any state or its political subdivisions, or agencies for persons not covered under Social Security.
*** SEE NOTE

*** NOTE: Where the PTD applicant and/or spouse receives only Social Security benefits and no benefits under 2. & 3., the amount of Social Security received may be deducted from income in full. Where the PTD applicant and/or spouse receives both Social Security benefits and benefits under 2. or 3., the larger of any one of the income categories can be deducted. The amount of Federal, State, County, Municipal pension, disability or retirement benefit etc. excluded should be based on actual benefits received provided that the total excluded under 2. or 3. above is not in excess of the maximum benefit amount excludable in similar circumstances under 1. Social Security. (N.J.S.A. 54:4-8.40(a)(1)(2)(3))

"Disability benefits" the New Jersey Constitution, statutes and regulations are silent on the subject of disability income other than those disability benefits received under a Federal, State, or Political Subdivision program which are excludable only to the extent of the maximum benefit received under the Federal Social Security Act. Therefore, any other disability income received should be evaluated for inclusion or exclusion based on its proper treatment for Federal Income Tax purposes. (See Handbook for New Jersey Assessors, Section 402.241, as updated in April 1998 and the Local Property Branch Newsletter, September/October 1977, page 1.)

A WORD ABOUT SOCIAL SECURITY DISABILITY DETERMINATIONS

The amount of Social Security benefits awarded surviving spouses is variable and is best established by Social Security Certificate, Forms SSA-30 OR SSA-2458, or Third Party Query (TPQY) Response when determining the income deduction allowed. Where award certificate has an issue date that is not current, assessors/collectors may need to request proof of current eligibility such as current check stub.

Disability under Social Security is based on a person's inability to work. Someone will be considered disabled if that person cannot do work he/she did before and the Social Security Administration decides that same person cannot adjust to other work because of his/her medical condition(s). The disability also must last or be expected to last for at least a year or to result in death. Social Security does not pay for partial disability or for short-term disability. Under Social Security law, all disability cases must be reviewed from time to time. This is to make sure that people receiving benefits continue to be disabled and meet all other requirements. Benefits generally will continue unless there is strong proof of medical improvement and an ability to return to work. How often a case is reviewed depends on the likelihood of improvement. The frequency can range from six months to seven years.

- If medical improvement is "expected," a case normally will be reviewed within six to eighteen months.
- If medical improvement is "possible," a case normally will be reviewed no sooner than three years.
- If medical improvement is "not expected," a case normally will be reviewed no sooner than seven years.

GENERAL RULE OF THUMB WITH REGARD TO INCOME

If income treatment is not addressed in New Jersey Statutes, N.J.S.A. 54:4-8.40 et seq., or the New Jersey Administrative Code, N.J.A.C. 18:14-1.1 et seq. defer to income status for Federal Income Tax purposes. Local Property Newsletter, May/June 1982, page 1.

"Business Income Expenses" Ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in a trade or business are treated as deductions for adjusted gross income. Such deductions are subtracted from gross income to arrive at adjusted gross income to the extent allowed under the IRS Code and Regulations. However, certain categories of expenses may only be used against similar categories of income and not applied broadly against all income. To ascertain the treatment of such expenses, it is necessary to review how the income was categorized, reported and treated for Federal Income Tax purposes. Deductions for AGI are reported on page 1 of the Federal 1040 and originate on supporting schedules; Federal Schedule C for business expenses and Federal Schedule E for rent, royalty, partnership and fiduciary deductions.

"Gifts" are not treated as income for Federal Income Tax purposes and, therefore, are not income when determining the annual $10,000 limit for the Real Property Tax Deduction. But any income generated from the gifts, including profits derived from their sale, is income. Section 849 U.S. Master Tax Guide.

"Inheritances, bequests, devises" are not income for Federal Income Tax purposes and are not included as income for establishing the $10,000 ceiling for property tax deduction. However, any income generated from the property such as investment income, rental income, or profits from their sale is income. Section 847 U.S. Master Tax Guide.

"IRA income", when it is distributed, must be counted toward the $10,000 limit.

"Life insurance" all payments due to death of the insured are not considered income for Federal Income Taxes, nor for property tax deduction entitlement. Section 803 U.S. Master Tax Guide.

"N.J. Worker's Compensation" payments made under state law for occupational injury or illness arising out of employment are not considered income subject to Federal taxation, nor are they income when calculating income levels for the $250 property tax deduction. Section 851 U.S. Master Tax Guide.

"Alimony and Child Support" Alimony and separate maintenance payments are deductible by the payor and are includible in the gross income of the party receiving the payments. Child support payments are not includible as income received. Sections 771 and 776 U.S. Master Tax Guide.

"Unemployment Compensation" The entire annual amount of unemployment compensation benefits received must be included as income to recipient. Payments to laid-off employees from company-financed supplemental unemployment benefit plans are taxable income in the year received. Section 722 U.S. Master Tax Guide.

"Armed Forces Benefits" Benefits under any law administered by the Veterans Administration are not includible income for Federal Income Tax purposes. This includes amounts paid to veterans or their families in the form of educational, training, or subsistence allowances, disability compensation and pension payments for disabilities, grants for homes designed for wheelchair living, and so forth. Such payments are prefaced as payments "for personal injuries or sickness which resulted from combat-related service in the armed forces..." Section 891 U.S. Master Tax Guide.

"State Lottery Winnings" are considered income for purposes of establishing the $10,000 income cutoff for $250 Real Property Tax Deduction. Local Property Newsletter, May/June 1977, page 2.

"Reverse Mortgage" Because a reverse mortgage is the assumption of a debt, it is not considered income for purposes of this deduction.

"Homestead Rebate" is not considered income when computing the yearly $10,000 income limitation for $250 Real Property Tax Deduction. Local Property Branch Newsletter, January/February 1978, page 2. For 2010, the Homestead Rebate is referred to as the Homestead Benefit and is to be applied in one or two installments to the 2012 property tax bill as credits. The credits are not considered income. For 2007, the rebate was re-designated as the Homestead Property Tax Credit, but its form was a rebate and treatment was the same as prior rebates, that is, it was not income.

"NJ SAVER" Rebate (School Assessment Valuation Exemption Relief) was similar to the Homestead Rebate and was not income for property tax deduction purposes. "FAIR Rebate" Beginning with tax year 2005, the Homestead Rebate and the NJ SAVER Rebate were combined into the FAIR Rebate and, like prior rebates, were not considered income for purposes of this deduction.

"REAP" Payment (Regional Efficiency Aid Program) is not income but like the Homestead Rebate and SAVER Rebate is deemed a refund of property taxes.

"Property Tax Reimbursement" The Property Tax Reimbursement (PTR), also known as the Senior/Disabled Tax Freeze, is not considered income when computing the annual $10,000 income limitation for the $250 Real Property Tax Deduction. As with the rebates, the PTR functions as a refund of property taxes paid.

FULL RETIREMENT AGE

Age To Receive Full Social Security Benefits

Beginning in the year 2003, this change affects people born in 1938 and later. Benefits will still be available at age 62, but with greater reduction.

SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFIT MAXIMUM

 Surviving spouse (with minor or disabled children of the deceased).

Any questions in regard to this information can be directed to the New Jersey Division of Taxation, Property Administration, PO Box 251, Trenton, NJ 08695-0251.

Adherence to these Guidelines should result in a more uniform implementation of the Act.

INCOME DETERMINED-EXAMPLES

All examples assume all other prerequisites for eligibility for Property Tax Deduction have been met. Examples 1-5 reflect applicant/spouse with excludable Social Security benefits only. Examples 6-16 reflect applicants with income in more than one of the three excludable categories. Spouse-Social Security	5,500	0
Total	$69,125	$56,784

Applicant can deduct income from only ONE of the three categories of excludable income; i.e., either Railroad pension or Social Security-not both. Since the Railroad pension is larger than the Social Security benefit, it is the most advantageous choice. However, the amount of Railroad pension deducted cannot exceed the maximum amount allowed under Social Security. The same is true of the spouse's State pension. A total of $56,784 can be deducted from income leaving a balance of $12,341 which is over the $10,000 income limit.

The County pension is larger than the applicant's Social Security benefit, but does not exceed the Social Security maximum of $28,392 and can be deducted in full. The same is true of the spouse's Public School pension. A total of $18,000 can be deducted from income leaving a balance of $9,850 which is under the $10,000 income limit.

Conclusion: Eligible

	INCOME	DEDUCTION ALLOWED
Applicant-Municipal pension	$ 8,000	$ 0
Applicant-Social Security	9,500	9,500
Spouse-State pension	3,600	3,600
Spouse-Social Security	1,700	0
Total	$22,800	$13,100

Applicant can deduct income from only ONE of the three categories of excludable income; i.e., either Municipal pension or Social Security. Applicant's Social Security benefit is larger than the Municipal pension and can be deducted in full. State pension is larger than spouse's Social Security benefit but not more than the SS maximum of $28,392 and can be deducted in full. Again, one category only. A total of $13,100 can be deducted from income leaving a balance of $9,700 which is under the $10,000 income limit.

Other Income	11,000	0
Total	$48,500	$37,392

Applicant can deduct Federal pension up to the maximum amount allowed under Social Security. Spouse's Social Security benefit can be deducted in full but the balance of $11,108 is over the $10,000 income limit.

Conclusion: Not Eligible

EXAMPLE 10

PTD Applicant and nonworking spouse both attain full retirement age. Spouse receives benefits through retired worker.

	INCOME	DEDUCTION ALLOWED
Applicant-Railroad pension	$32,000	$28,392 (SS maximum)
Applicant-Social Security	7,500	0
Spouse-Social Security	4,250	14,196 (1/2 applicant)

Applicant can deduct income from ONE category; i.e., the larger Railroad pension, up to the maximum amount allowed under Social Security. Spouse is receiving Social Security benefits through retired worker applicant amounting to 50% of worker's SS benefit; the spouse is allowed, by administrative decision, a deduction equal to 1/2 of the applicant's deduction (1/2 of the applicant's monthly Railroad (governmental pension) benefits rounded down to the next lower dollar). A total of $42,588 can be deducted from income leaving a balance of $1,162 which is under the $10,000 income limit.

Conclusion: Eligible

EXAMPLE 11

Applicant-Social Security	7,500	7,500
Spouse-Private pension	5,000	0
Total	$18,500	$7,500

Applicant's Social Security, larger than the Federal pension, can be deducted in full. However, the spouse's private pension is not an excludable category of income, nor can Social Security benefits be received through the retired worker applicant because spouse is not of retirement age as required by Social Security. A total of $7,500 can be deducted from income leaving a balance of $11,000 which is over the $10,000 income limit.

Conclusion: Not Eligible

EXAMPLE 12

PTD Applicant full retirement age and spouse age 62 or more.

	INCOME	DEDUCTION ALLOWED

Conclusion: Eligible

EXAMPLE 13

PTD Applicant surviving spouse, is retired worker, age 55 years, non-disabled w/no minor or disabled children.

Applicant is less than age 62 years, the earliest age a non-disabled worker can receive Social Security benefits, and is less than 60 years, the earliest age a non-disabled surviving spouse can receive SS benefits through deceased worker. Therefore, all income must be included and total of $12,000 is over $10,000 income limit.

Conclusion: Not Eligible

EXAMPLE 14

PTD Applicant and spouse both full retirement age. Or PTD applicant disabled, less than full retirement age, spouse age 62 or more.

Spouse-Social Security	6,000	0
Other Income	1,000	0
Total	$38,400	$29,000

Applicant can deduct Social Security benefit in full. Spouse can deduct income from one category of excludable income; i.e., either Social Security or County pension. Spouse's County pension is larger and is the most advantageous choice. A total of $29,000 can be deducted from income leaving a balance of $9,400 which is under the $10,000 income limit.

Conclusion: Eligible

EXAMPLE 15

PTD Applicant disabled, less than full retirement age, spouse age 62 or more.

	INCOME	DEDUCTION ALLOWED

Total	$33,452	$28,952

Applicant's Social Security benefit can be deducted in full. Applicant's business income is not deductible but ordinary and necessary expenses of the business as allowed by the Federal Internal Revenue Code and regulations can be subtracted from the business income. Spouse's Social Security is deducted in full leaving a balance of $4,500 which is under the $10,000 income limit.

Conclusion: Eligible

EXAMPLE 16

PTD Applicant of full retirement age.

	INCOME	DEDUCTION ALLOWED
Applicant Social Security	$15,500	$15,500
Applicant Rental Income	14,000	0
Applicant Allowable Rental Expenses	(15,000)	0
Applicant Private Pension	9,000	0
Other income	1,500	0
Total	$25,000	$15,500
	or *$26,000

Social Security benefit deducted in full. Income total subject to Federal Internal Revenue Code, treatment of rental income and allowable expenses in excess of rental income. Disposition of the net $1,000 rental income loss is dependent on Federal Income Tax Treatment.

Conclusion: Depends on review of Federal Income Tax Treatment.

Where federal guidelines permit taxpayer to apply expense loss against income, the $1,000 net loss reduces the income to $25,000. After allowable deductions, a balance of $9,500 remains which is under the $10,000 income limit resulting in eligible status.

*Where rental income is reduced to zero after deductions of ordinary and necessary expenses of the rental property, income totals $26,000. After allowable deductions, a balance of $10,500 remains which is over the $10,000 income limit resulting in ineligibility.
